Naya has broken out of jail!

Last night, under the under the cover of darkness, Naya broke out of her prison. She disabled the guards with a simple pressure - point pinch, and ripped apart the electric fence surrounding the prion after disabling the electricity that flowed through it. The escape was reported to be sometime between 2 and 3 A.M., and it seemed that someone was helping Naya. Mavis.

When the police came to search Mavis's house, they found no sign of her or Naya. It seemed as if they had vanished away, but Mavis's tricycle was not in the garage. It seemed like the tricycle was Mavis's getaway vehicle for now. This will not make the police's job any easier, because Mavis can go 50 mph on a tricycle.

After the escape, Mavis's sisters were appalled. Mavis loves Naya, but she did commit a crime. Any escape effort could put them both in prison for at least five more years. Mavis is 3 years old - she might spend most of her life in prison if that happens.

"Now there are 12 kittens of Mavis and Naya who don't know where their mother is," says North, a multi species behaviorist, "I sent Harvey to watch the kittens while Mavis and Naya are away, and he can keep them busy for quite a while if needed."

But North also knows that there is a possibility that Mavis and Naya will never be able to see their kittens again. Life on the lam is hard. The police will want to keep a close eye on Mavis and Naya's kittens, because they know how much Mavis and Naya want to see their kittens again.

While the police scour the area and the places outside of it, they have made an order that makes sure that all cats have to stay in their counties. There can be 1,000 dollar fines for defying the police, so people are likely to follow the order.

Sir Maximus jr., one of Judy's kittens is planning a secret expedition to try to find Mavis and Naya. It will be hard to catch up with them, even though they have a vehicle that can go 60 mph. This effort is strictly secret, so they will leave in the night. All of Mavis's sisters are counting on this effort, because this is truly an emergency.

"Mavis and Naya's kittens are good natured, but they will start to suspect that something is wrong soon!"

Catalameda Police

Under the order of the Catalameda Police, no cat is to leave Catalameda county until the the police catch a criminal and release the order.

Harvey already has his hands full with 12 kittens, but he is doing his best to keep them interested by building them a fort using Mavis's clothes. Mavis would have objected to this, because those clothes were made by the best fashion designer in Catalameda County.

Naya's going to be in a lot of trouble with the police and her sisters when she and Mavis are found, but so far there has been no trace of either of them. That will be a story for another day.
