
CATS ILLUSTRATED

A tricycle was abandoned outside Catalameda county!

Just outside Catalameda county, a tricycle was found abandoned. At first the police were puzzled, because this was the easiest getaway vehicle for Mavis and Naya. A more thorough inspection led to the discovery that the tricycle had a flat tire.

Image above - An abandoned tricycle.

This means that Mavis and Naya can't travel quite as fast now. Mavis's number 1 rule about tricycles is that you can't use a tricycle with a flat. This still applies to her, because this tricycle was abandoned supposedly because of the flat. People are on the lookout for a gray she cat with a tea colored she cat, so Mavis and Naya can't just go to a tricycle repair shop.

The secret investigation led by Sir Maximus jr., one of Judy's kits has been very happy about this news. This means that Mavis and Naya are somewhere in the area, which makes it easier to catch or trap them.

On the tricycle there was a tag. It said "property of Mavis, call 100 - 101 - 0102." The thing that really gave Mavis away was the image on the tag (on the right), because it showed Mavis looking wide - eyed at a camera with her kittens in the background. This gave the police proof that this was Mavis's tricycle.

Some cats are becoming concerned. If Mavis had to abandon her tricycle, would she feel compelled to steal another one? This worries lots on cats, especially Harvey, who is Mavis's uncle and was like a father to her after White, Mavis mother left her kittens.

Mavis's and Naya's kittens are already starting to wonder when their mamas will get back. Harvey is running out of excuses, and soon the kittens will figure out that he doesn't know where their mamas are. This would make the kittens feel really scared, and Harvey doesn't want that. His last hope is that maybe Mavis and Naya will be back by the end of the kitten's week long sleep away camp. Otherwise Harvey will have to tell the kittens the truth about Mavis and Naya's predicament.

"Mavis would only abandon her tricycle if she really had to - I just hope she doesn't try to steal another one!"

- NORTH, A MULTI SPECIES BEHAVIORIST

Image above - The tag on Mavis's tricycle.

Just now a secret security camera posted by Judy at the edge of Catsan Jose located two cats wearing long hoods. The camera couldn't get a good look at their faces, but it did make out a kink in a gray tail just like the one that Mavis had. Was it a coincidence, or did the secret camera locate Mavis and Naya?

Subscribe to get more on this issue and many, many, more!