Just recently, Makenna has displayed a beautiful act of love toward Harvey, by sitting near his sleeping form. This has confirmed that Makenna is in love with Harvey!

“This just put it over the top,” says North, a multi - species behaviorist, “this has been highly suspected for a while, but not confirmed. Any scientist, behaviorist, or any other cat would say that Harvey and Makenna are in love.”

without loving him, so his gains in life feel like your own. Harvey has already received 14 care packages, and 32 dollars.

As a gift, Makenna is buying Harvey and her and North and Harvey's other kittens a home if they want it. She just wants Harvey to feel at home and comfortable. In the photo on the left, Makenna is trying sleeping with her family. Harvey takes up half the space, leaving North, Makenna, and Reposado to share the other half, as in the image on the right.

Because she is joining a new family, Makenna is doing her best to get used to some of Harvey's family customs. First of all, everyone takes turns doing the dishes, even the adults. Makenna usually had a bed to her own, and no one was snoring like Harvey. Makenna is doing her best to try to fit in to Harvey's family lifestyle.

Makenna likes to sleep in until 8:00, because her job is from home, like Harvey, who is a therapist who works in his own home. Unfortunately, every cat gets up earlier than her at 6:00, 6:30, at every other half hour interval. It is hard for Makenna to sleep in when every

“I’m feeling on edge because I don’t want to mess up my relationship with Harvey!”

- MAKENNA, WHO HAS BEEN LOOKING NERVOUS FOR A WHILE

Because she is now part of the family, Makenna wants to know more about what Harvey does for a living. She knows that he is a therapist, and she agrees that it is a suitable job for him because Harvey is an old gentle cat, who you can't know without loving him. He is the perfect therapy cat that you will meet. Makenna is a lucky cat to have him as a mate.
