

---

CATS ILLUSTRATED

---

Mavis and Harvey are NOT getting along!

Ever since Mavis learned from Harvey that he was, in fact The Muscle, Mavis and Harvey have not been getting along. Well actually, Mavis is the one who starts all of the problems. However, Harvey is getting annoyed that Mavis keeps arguing with him about anything there could be to argue about. One time, Mavis even brought her kittens into it. Mavis's kittens were on a fun school trip to an amusement park, and Harvey was one of the chaperones. So when Mavis didn't have quite enough money for all of her kittens to get an ice cream cone, Harvey stepped in and said that Mavis could have 5 of his dollars to help pay for it. However, Mavis refused and ushered her kittens away from the stand, with no ice cream at all. Harvey was mad about this, because Mavis's kittens were close to tears. So, while Mavis was letting her kittens play on a large playground, Harvey bought them all ice cream and doled it out. Unfortunately, Mavis caught him in the act and asked her kittens to stop eating the ice cream. But they just ate the rest of it before Mavis's eyes. Harvey made the wise choice and disappeared after that.

Image above - Harvey, pacing and thinking about what to do about Mavis not liking him for being a better wrestler than her in talent and trophies.

---

Mavis was not happy after that incident, but she didn't want to bring her kittens into her conflict. So, Mavis made a rash choice. She challenged Harvey to a wrestling match, in front of Harvey's family and friends, and her sisters. Harvey turned white, and not just his belly fur. If he let Mavis win, she would think he had given up. But if he fought hard, all the cats watching would know something was up. But Harvey was not going to let Mavis get away with this. So he decided to fight his hardest. But also, Mavis was looking very confident. Harvey had seen her sometimes, practicing her moves at night and Harvey had no doubt at all that the moves were perfect counters to his regular ones. So, Harvey decided to break out some special moves.

The match started at 9:00 P.M. North was filming, so it started for real. Mavis leaped at Harvey, and Harvey rolled under her legs. However, Mavis flopped down, and Harvey had just enough time to roll out of the way. Harvey charged, and Mavis darted to the left, so Harvey went to the right, Mavis stopped, a little confused, and that gave Harvey the time to kick her in the side after spinning and gaining momentum. Mavis charged, and did her chubby wipe attack. Harvey somehow grabbed her chubby foreleg in the air, and pushed kick down. Mavis decided to try her signature move. She darted from left to right, and then launched a kick at Harvey from the left. However, Harvey did the unthinkable. He ducked, grabbed her chubby foreleg, and slammed her down. Then, with no sign of effort, Harvey threw Mavis out of the ring. And the crowd went wild.

“Did Harvey just beat Mavis, the second best cat wrestler ever in the history of cat wrestling?”

- NORTH, WHO'S SHOCKED

Subscribe again to hear more about what happened next!

Image above - Harvey completing his last preparations just before the wrestling match between him and Mavis.