Cats are going CRAZY over Harvey's disappearance!

Ever since Juliet's story was leaked out to the public, cats are going crazy over Harvey's disappearance. We were able to cover up the disappearing with a shadow cat part, with some old favors and bribes. However, cats are going crazy over Harvey's disappearance. Some of his therapy clients were bursting into tears at random moments, North was starting to have sad stages that Naya couldn't help with, and Judy was just slamming her head on the wall for some reason. If anything, cats were thinking that she should be glad that Harvey was gone. At least the police weren't searching for her film anymore. They had already found and deleted most of it. But, how could Judy feel satisfied about that kind of thing when Harvey was gone. She could still remember his pound cake for North's birthday. It didn't taste too much like sugar as Harvey had hoped. However, it was pretty good.

Harvey's disappearance has been starting to affect the economy, too. A band had a concert recently, but they stopped halfway through and threw down their instruments and microphones curtesy of the 10 cats in the audience who later explained that their catPhone's batteries had run out and they were going to the concert until their batteries were charged. When North went to work at Behavior and Co., his boss was sad when North didn't bring any of Harvey's less sugary chocolate chip muffins for him and North's colleagues. North knew something about the muffins that made him shudder. Harvey had discovered the wonders of sugar, but it would be a different story when he experimented with caffeine, as in the muffins. Harvey's the only cat out there that when you add him with food, you get monster. Or unhealthy. Or Harvey flavored sugar. North did not want to think about the latter.

Unfortunately, Harvey's disappearance is having an effect on mama cats and their kittens, too. Recently Sushi, a mama cat, acquired some clothes and put them on. Harvey had worn similar ones, and Sushi wanted to remember him. She had been one of his therapy clients, and she liked him very much. She had come to see the new additions a little while ago, and they looked perfect. The sand pit was almost irresistible. However, when you have clothes, your kittens can't suckle. Sushi's kittens are not weaned completely, and they are hungry at night. Sushi needs to help them before they starve.

"I read this sneak peek and then gave you guys a very bad review online!"

- NAYA, WHO'S VERY ANNOYED ON NORTH'S BEHALF

As it happened, just now we got some response from our computer chip stuck in Harvey's fur. However, we would like to document Harvey's journey without the pressing issue of a 2 page limit. So, click on the link on the right for the story of Harvey's adventure through space and time (maybe, we don't know). By the way, there's a sneak peak here - Harvey couldn't see. He was still grappling with the shadow cat. However, the air was slowly being forced out of his lungs by some unknown grip. Harvey clawed at his neck to no avail.
