
CATS ILLUSTRATED

Rudy and Judy have started a fight!

Last night, Judy called Rudy and there were some very bad words exchanged. Max heard Judy's side of the call, and Blackspots heard Rudy's side of the call. They called an emergency meeting, to discuss what to do about Rudy and Judy's quarrel. However, they obviously didn't leap into action right away, because by the time that Max and Blackspots came back to their houses with a plan, Rudy and Judy had already left to fight each other. The fight was supposed to take place at the town park, at 11:00. It was only 10:30, and Blackspots and Max rushed to the park without any further notice. Harvey and Mavis, two must haves to break up a fight between Rudy and Judy, were off investigating near Coffee's palace and keeping him company. Coffee was thoroughly spooked however, and it took 3 therapy sessions and 3 nights of sleeping with Harvey until he felt better.

Image above - Rudy, who's thinking about whether she should have started her side of the fight.

Max and Blackspots arrived at 10:56, in time to hear the main point of the fight. Judy was accusing Rudy of deleting the rest of her film, and to Blackspots's dismay, Rudy wasn't denying it. However, Rudy was accusing Judy of stealing the money that she would have used to buy a new house. And to Max's dismay, Judy wasn't denying it. And then, without any further communication, Max and Blackspots simultaneously leaped and tackled their mates into opposite bushes. Rudy was cut off from her sentence, and Judy's angry look was replaced with surprise as she fell into a bush with Max. "What really happened?" Max asked Judy, making sure that there was no escape route to Rudy. He heard Blackspots asking Rudy the same thing. "We need to know if we are to resolve your quarrel."

Judy opened up her mouth to say something bad about Rudy, but stopped. She knew that she needed to tell the truth. "Well, yesterday the last film of the movie that I had disappeared. I guess Rudy's money disappeared too. So, we called each other to accuse the other of stealing. Things got heated, and we each wanted to fight. So, we came here." Max tilted his head, taking in the information. Then, he listened to Rudy's story from the other bush.

"Juliet's strong, but she can't guard her filthy kitten, Wilbur Spots, from me!"

- RUDY, WHO IS FURIOUS WITH WILBUR SPOTS

name of Wilbur Spots. I don't know why he was stealing from Rudy's account, but he can't have good intentions."

Image above - Judy, who's ready to resolve.

"One moment," Rudy was saying, "the money was in my account. The next, it wasn't. The only profile picture was of Judy. I still really think that she stole the money." Judy stiffened at these words. "I know that profile picture. My profile picture is a picture of a massive bowl of tuna. However, the cat who's profile picture that is -," Judy paused, "a minor. A minor by the Subscribe again for more on this perplexing realization!