
CATS ILLUSTRATED

Something strange is attacking!

As North and Harvey went to bed, North heard something very strange indeed. The sound of large, powerful wings seemed to be coming from outside. North looked out the window, curious about what was making this odd sound. He blanched when he saw the massive bird outside the hospital, circling and screeching. The bird seemed to have hundreds of wings instead of hundreds of feathers, and it easily gained altitude with a coordinated stroke of most of the wings on its body. North quickly woke Harvey and Makenna and told the hospital staff about the danger.

Image above - Harvey, who did not stir when North heard the sound of wings from outside.

Luckily, because so many cats had shown up to the party to celebrate Harvey, getting well, Harvey was able to assemble a fighting party of over 100 cats. Rudy and Judy were among them, both holding the weapons they had used when they had fought. Their kittens were working together also, and were building a large net. Mavis and Harvey were at the front, fully armed. Ice, Rice, and Rice jr. were in formation already, Ice holding his trusty metal bar. All cats were ready to fight if necessary. Mavis and Harvey went outside carefully, scouting.

Suddenly, the large bird spoke. "Turn over Harvey to me, or die." Mavis recognized that voice. "The thief cat!" She exclaimed, and ushered out the archers, including Ghost, Phantom, May, and Maxine. They released a round of arrows, which hit the bird/thief cat all over its larger wings. They were nocking more arrows when the bird went into a dive, straight toward the archers. "Shield formation!" Mavis shouted, "maximum cats!" As she said this, 20 cats came out of the hospital doors carrying a massive shield. They all pressed themselves against it, ready for an impact. But Harvey saw that this dive was incredibly powerful. "20 more cats needed!" He shouted, and 20 cats wielding swords and shields dropped their weapons and helped support the shield. Mavis and Harvey joined in too, and the bird/thief cat crashed into the shield with a resounding bang. All 42 cats staggered, but the bird/thief cat got the worst of it. They were dazed,

Image above - Lunch, who had to stay home because of a family matter.

"I bet that no other kitten my age has been shot out of a cannon!"

- RICE JR., WHO'S THINKING ABOUT BRAGGING

And Rudy and Judy plus their team were on top of the bird/thief cat in a moment, hacking with axes, clubs, maces, and swords. A couple of the hospital staff joined in with crutches. But not 5 minutes later, the battered bird/thief cat, flew back up to the sky, injured. "Ready the cannons!" Harvey shouted, and the cannons were loaded, a cat in each one. There were 10 cannons in all, and 10 cats ready for the flight of their lives. From the top of the hospital building, 3 flares were shot, gunpowder was loaded, Mavis, Harvey, Naya, Rudy, Judy, Stripy, Ice, Rice, Rice jr., and Juliet hopped into their cannons. And then finally, BOOM!

Subscribe again for more on Lunch's family matter!