Rudy is attacking Judy's house!

After Judy took Blackspots and Blackspots jr. hostage in her house, Rudy has been preparing for a second bloody war with Judy. She has equipped her kittens with many things, and 3 of her kittens are holding sniper rifles. Rudy will blast holes in the walls of Judy's house. The other 3 of her kittens have huge shields that they can barely carry. The shield block 3 kittens or 2 kittens and Rudy from attacks, or even gunfire. For now, the 3 kittens with shields are advancing on Judy's house, in marching formation. Nothing can get past when the 3 shields are linked together. Rudy is marching in front of the shields, with her own not as large metal shield in hand and her massive war axe. The rest of Rudy's kittens, trying to figure out how to use their sniper rifles, are behind the shields. A cry came from one of the windows of Judy's house. "And, fire!" Dozens of arrows soared past the shield formation. Rudy expertly blocked the ones that came near her, and the 3 huge wooden shields blocked some of the rest. No kittens were hit. Rudy returned the cry, "and, fire!" The shields parted a little bit, and 3 kittens fired a couple blasts with their rifles. There were no cries of pain from inside the house, but a couple windows were broken and there were a couple of small holes in the outside of Judy's house.

Inside her damaged house, Judy realized that she needed to bring the fight to Rudy's house. This was what Rudy wanted, of course, because Rudy had tested it and found that not even a cannonball could penetrate the defenses. So when an armed battalion of Judy's kittens rushed out of her house, Rudy's kittens ran as fast as they could, helping out those lugging shields behind them. But finally Rudy and her kittens reached their stronghold, Rudy's house. 2 of Rudy's kittens stayed behind, stalling with their rifles raised. Judy's kittens would not dare come closer. But, when Rudy signaled for the kittens to come in, they fired a few warning shots and ran back to Rudy's house. The door was locked, and each kitten went to their position. A barrage of arrows hit the metal plated house, but bounced off harmlessly. One of Rudy's kittens spotted one of Judy's kittens going to the back of the house, and triggered the barricade. A wall of wood coated with metal rose up on each side of Rudy's house, blocking all entrance the backyard. Judy's kitten jumped back to avoid being skewered, and ran back toward the front yard.

Judy was mad. She was mad that she Rudy had such good defenses, she was mad that her kittens couldn't break through, and Judy went into a rage. She twirled her club, and slammed it into the spiked metal wall on the outside of Rudy's house.
