CATS ILLUSTRATED

Lunch is still comatose!

As Lunch is still comatose, many cats worry deeply for her. Lunch is a very loving cat, who makes great food, and is very nice to be around. Seeing her in a coma is very hard for some cats, like Harvey, who was crushed when Lunch's Luncheon closed temporarily as Lunch was in a coma. No sugar fries for Harvey. However, many cats have made Lunch get well soon cards to put by her hospital bed, so that she will have a good feeling when she wakes up.

While Lunch is still comatose, the police have had a small breakthrough on the murder of the soccer player cat. It turns out that the cat who was killed was friends with the goalie who had gotten Mexico and Belgium to come and try to help, and that the goalie cat had recieved some threatening letters recently. The FBC has already talked to some other law enforcement agencies in other countries, and are trying to get them to bring the suspects in for questioning. This is an international affair, but unfortunately Mexico and Belgium are not so happy about the whole thing.

As the murder investigation continues, The Catolympics are coming to a close. In soccer, the bronze medal match was just played, with Argentina coming back to win 1 - 0 over England. China and Senegal will meet later today, and many cats will want to watch that match. Mexico and Belgium were both in the Catolympics too, but Mexico didn't make it past the group stage and Belgium suffered an easy 2 - 0 loss in the quarterfinal. The water polo final had been played, with Germany winning the gold medal. However, there were only 4 water polo teams in the first place and it might have felt better if there had been more like 8 teams in the water polo competition. The basketball and handball finals had also done the bronze medal match, with the gold medal match yet to come.

Coding too, is still thriving, as Mavis kittens are taking a class to learn more. They really love to code, and Mavis supports them as long as they take a break every once and a while. Mavis's kittens and Lunch's kittens both loved to code, and Mavis snuck a photo of 12 kittens sitting in her living room coding on computers. We aren't allowed to show that photo, but it was really nice.

FOR FORCED SLAVERY

However, something new has arisen. Juliet has been drinking, and was recently arrested for drunk driving. She is currently in a holding cell, but it is looking bad. She may have to spend a short sentence in prison. Blackpelt, her mate, and her kittens do not want that to happen.
