Harvey's Jeep has broken down!

As many of you know, Harvey is very fond of Jeeps, especially his. So, when it broke down late yesterday, he was close to heartbroken. His precious Jeep has taken a turn too hard and as it was already low on gas, the engine game out with a small bang. Harvey was not injured, but is trying as hard as he can to wait patiently while his Jeep is repaired.

While most cats don't usually cry over a broken down car, Harvey does. However, he can't quite explain why this happens - it just does. Maybe it is because Harvey is older and feels more emotion for things - or maybe it is because this is the only car he's ever driven. Because he's missing one of his front legs, driving a Jeep on an empty road is the only driving Harvey can do safely. But for one of these reasons, or something else entirely, Harvey cries over a broken down Jeep.

While Harvey waits the long wait to get his Jeep repaired, Juliet has been ordered by the court to pay a fine of 500 dollars for drunk driving. It is a sizable fine, and not to mention the other order to go with it - Juliet has to stay away from alcohol for 2 weeks. That will be hard, but when you do something like driving drunk, you have to pay the fine (pun intended). Blackpelt has confiscated all of Juliet's alcohol, and has not even let her order beer battered fish. However, Blackpelt's idea for confiscating alcohol backfired when 6 bottles of beer disappeared from the closet he was storing them in. Juliet had 6 kittens, and Blackpelt rushed into his kittens' room too late as they had downed half their bottles, and chugged the rest before Blackpelt could do anything. One of Juliet's kittens stood up, and then giggled Blackpelt stared open mouthed at the half drunk messes his kittens had become. Blackpelt took that cue to take all alcohol out of the house.

Unfortunately, the stunt of Juliet's kittens sparked more rebellion, and the police actually had to step in to stop the selling of alcohol for a short period, as there were so many kittens dressing as adults and so many stealings of alcohol. It was quite a mess.

“Juliet's kittens were more drunk than Juliet should every be!”

While kittens triumph over getting to drink alcohol, Harvey's Jeep has been completely fixed up. It isn't good as new, but North drove it home today and it reacted better than before - the engine wasn't the only thing that had been broken. However, when North got home, Harvey promptly took his Jeep, drove it carefully to an open road, and then, to his dismay, crashed in into a ditch. Time for another trip to the repair shop.
