Naya has been caught vandalizing!

After we paid her well, Naya vandalized The Facts's new building. However, she was caught, and Naya being Naya, luckily for us, kept the identity of her clients a secret from the police. However, Naya had to pay a fine, as she had drawn a massive upside down face on The Facts's new building in permanent or at least sticky spray paint.

While North is used to Naya getting into trouble way more than a regular cat would, he decided that she needed to turn away from robbing, vandalizing, and other petty acts. Naya is very reluctant to accept such a commitment, as a lot of the money she earns is by pickpocketing, and stealing her kittens' money. However, this is not going as well anymore, as Naya's kittens have learned from their mama and now have traps set up all over their room that have sometimes gotten Naya herself.

Mavis will be happy if Naya agrees to not committing any more bad acts like the examples shown, because Naya has stolen a bunch of cabbages from Mavis, just because. I mean, Naya doesn't eat them, she just steals them and lets them rot to make Mavis mad. Naya also owes Mavis a lot of money from over the years, and Mavis is hoping that some day, Naya will pay it back to her.

As Naya thinks about the idea to give up a life of crime, we turn back to the vandalism Naya was doing. We had to pay her well, but donation levels have risen a bit ever since Rudy added into her book that we are helpful. We definitely don't want to say this, but tripping Judy might have been worth it. Judy is still thinking that Rudy did it, but our reporter that actually tripped Judy has packed a bag just in case they have to run.

The Facts have been gaining popularity fast, and now have more followers than us on Flutter. We gave up the idea of making videos fast, as we do not have any reporters trained in the fine art of video editing. However, even The Facts's online issues are more popular than ours. If you are reading this, please support us! But then again, if you are reading this, you probably do support us, as most other cats would be reading The Fact's issues.

This vandalism is only the first step in our three part plan, and we plan on making the manager of The Facts wish they had never set paw in Pawsville. Also, a big frowning face spray painted on your headquarters is not going to bode well with cats.

Subscribe again for more vandalism!

“So we’re supposed to taunt a drunk member of The Facts into kicking us? Sounds good!”
