Rudy and Judy's joint party is starting!

Right now, Rudy and Judy's joint birthday party is starting in The Squirt Gun Arena. Cats have been looking forward to this, and are mobilizing to go to The Squirt Gun Arena. Kittens have packed their best squirt guns and are ready for a very fun fight.

Rudy and Judy, still not very happy about the party, are preparing as well. Rudy has a very large squirt gun that can shoot streams of water so hard that it can hurt. Judy has a squirt gun that shoots fast and short streams of water, and is excellent for sniping with. Judy plans to nail Rudy in the eye when Rudy comes close, and Rudy plans to squirt a hole in Judy's chubby forelegs. Harvey is also coming, and has brought a small squirt gun but will probably just belly flop into pools next to cats and splash them that way. Naya has three squirt guns, as she raided her kittens' stash recently. However, Naya only needed to raid her kittens' stash because they had raided hers.

Lunch has been preparing for her catering job, but is also going to participate in the squirt gun fight to come. Lunch's kittens and Jake were out at the store yesterday, picking out some new fangled squirt guns with different intensity levels and range adjustments. Lunch's kittens were armed to the teeth by the time they came out of the store. Literally, because some of Lunch's kittens were wearing mouth guards. They were definitely a force not to be reckoned with.

The squirt gun fight has officially begun in The Squirt Gun Arena, and it is already very chaotic. Harvey has ambushed a few cats with his splashy belly flop, and Lunch's kittens have already claimed many victims as well. However, the most fun fight would have to go to Rudy and Judy. "You're so slow and stupid," Rudy taunts Judy, who responds, "and you can't even see an attack coming." Judy squirts Rudy in the face, and Rudy lifts her squirt gun and fires at Judy, point blank range.

"You didn't spell out the word, but kittens can guess what 'a**h*le' is."

- LUNCH, WHO ISN'T TOO HAPPY WITH US

Rudy nails Judy in her chubby foreleg, and Judy winces, as the stream of water is very hard. But not for too long. "That'll leave a bruise, you a**h*le," Judy shouts, abandoning her squirt gun and charging Rudy. Rudy holds Judy off with sprays of water, and then runs.

This is a truly chaotic scene, but it is probably very fun for some cats. Rudy and Judy are still fighting, and Judy has held Rudy's head underwater until Rudy kicked Judy in the stomach and Rudy held Judy's head underwater. And so on. To be honest, their fights are quite predictable.
