Harvey's camping trip is going well!

As of right now, Harvey's camping trip is going well. Every cat who came is enjoying it, and there is a full day and another night ahead. Today, there will be lots of hikes and other activities that happen at a campground. Kittens will be looking forward to roasting marshmallows tonight, and adult cats are looking forward to s'mores.

However, Harvey is not the only cat who went camping last night. Lunch, Jake, and their kittens also went camping, though nothing turned out well. The tent was not set up until dinnertime, and after a bad dinner of cold soup Lunch realized that she had forgotten the marshmallows for roasting.

Lunch, Jake, and their kittens are not having a very good camping trip, and they will be happy to leave today. However, Harvey and his group would be happy to stay another week, if they could.

As the ice on Lake Scruff melted last night, cats have been going out on kayaks to enjoy the water. However, the water is too cold to swim in, which has not made any kittens happy. Harvey will be doing some paddle boarding, which gives him a high chance of falling into the freezing cold lake water. Harvey is the only cat who is going to try paddle boarding, as kittens want to go kayaking and adult cats are content staying in the tents and watching TV. North has reluctantly agreed to be Harvey's partner in paddle boarding. He knows that he will probably fall in the water a couple of times, but that is okay with North if Harvey is having fun.

While Stripy and Blackspots are excited about kayaking along with kittens, Rudy has decided that she did not want to do any hands-on work. Rudy had brought a mini fridge with her in her car, and just now she has taken out some drinks and is sitting next to the TV. Blackspots is not happy with Rudy, as he wants kayaking to be a family experience. But Rudy can be very stubborn at times, and in the end she was left alone to her TV and mini fridge.

“I do like camping, really! Nature is a great place to watch TV!”
