Rudy and Judy are warring!

As Rudy was at Judy's house with eggs and the forces of Juliet's kittens yesterday, Judy has had enough and is leading her own attack on Rudy's fortress. Juliet was worried about her kittens getting hurt in the fight, but Rudy paid her off and then Juliet was content to watch the fight from the sidelines.

Rudy's kittens and Juliet's kittens have joined forces, and now, there are two shield kittens, two arrow kittens, two kittens with two water guns each, two kittens ready to refill those water guns, and four attack kittens with swords. Rudy has got armor too, and she has a carton of eggs strapped to her side as well. She is working on armoring her house up, and setting up defenses. Rudy's kittens are keeping a lookout, arrow kitten ready, and Juliet's kittens are helping Rudy set up defenses for her house.

The first wave of attack came fast. Two of Judy's kittens came first, holding bows and arrows. The two arrow kittens struck back, hiding behind their shield while reloading. But the charge wasn't over yet. As Judy's arrow kittens retreated, clutching small wounds, four attack kittens came forward, with heavy armor and large swords. The water gun kittens began their assault, and Rudy's four attack kittens charged. Rudy's arrow kittens kept up their attack, barraging the enemy with arrows.

Finally, Judy came into view. Kittens stopped fighting and looked at Judy, who had thick armor covering her entire body, trusty mace in hand. Then, the fighting resumed. With the help of the arrow kittens and water gun kittens, Rudy's attack kittens drove Judy's attack kittens back, until Judy's attack kittens turned and ran. Then, attention turned to Judy. Judy charged Rudy's attack kittens, and they scattered. One kitten was caught by a glancing blow from Judy's mace, and they went down. But Rudy's attack kittens were brave. They charged Judy and got in a few pokes before being scattered by her mace.

Then, Judy turned her attention to the water gun kittens. They frantically shot at Judy and dunked her with water, but she scattered them, too, with a well aimed blow from her mace.

Then, Judy turned to Rudy. She could not get to the arrow kittens on the roof, so she would have to deal with the arrows. But Rudy was ready. She fired four eggs in rapid succession, and then cast aside the carton and hefted her iron club. From sitting positions, her kittens and Juliet's kittens watched as Rudy charged towards Judy.
